

Volunteer!

at the

Rio Grande Nature Center State Park

Learn about the bosque and enjoy its beauty!

Support the Park's mission to educate visitors about the bosque!

Make new friends and meet visitors from around the world!

Interested? Attend our 2019

Volunteer Training

New volunteers complete training over the course of five consecutive Fridays, beginning on February 8th and ending on March 8th

As well as monthly continuing education opportunities

Volunteers are required to complete a volunteer application and become members of the Friends of the RGNC State Park (FRGNC).

- Supplied class materials ($20) for all training participants
- Annual FRGNC Membership ($15-$30) see membership application for details
- Have access to the book: A Field Guide to the Plants & Animals of the Middle Rio Grande Bosque (available for purchase in the Nature Shop for $24.95)

Please request a volunteer application and register in advance by calling (505)344-7240 or visit www.rgnc.org

